Economic Impact Payments

Some people don't have to file a tax return but may still be eligible for an Economic Impact Payment. See if you qualify, then follow the steps to register for your payment.

How much are payments worth?

Up to $1,200 for individuals, $2,400 for married couples and $500 per qualifying child under 17.

Who is eligible?

U.S. citizens, permanent residents and qualifying resident aliens who:

- ✓ Have a valid Social Security number,
- ✓ Could not be claimed as a dependent of another taxpayer, and
- ✓ Had adjusted gross income under certain limits.

People who are not required to file tax returns have income that is below the income limits. However, there are individuals who file a tax return to get a refund even if they are not required to file.

How do you get an Economic Impact Payment?

Most taxpayers automatically received a payment. If you didn't and you are not required to file a tax return, the Non-Filers: Enter Payment Info Here is a free IRS tool that allows you to easily and quickly provide information about yourself and your family.

The IRS will use this information to determine your eligibility and send you an Economic Impact Payment.

Who should use the Non-filers tool?

Only people who did not already use the Non-Filers tool, and:

- ✓ had gross income at or below $12,200 ($24,400 for married couples) for 2019,
- ✓ did not file a return for 2018 or 2019,
- ✓ do not plan to file a return for 2019,
- ✓ were not otherwise required to file a federal income tax return for 2019, and
- ✓ cannot be claimed as a dependent on someone else's tax return.

To determine if you are required to file a 2019 tax return or if you should file to get a refund, you can use the IRS's Interactive Tax Assistant tool – Do I Need to File a Tax Return? – and answer basic questions.

Before you begin

Anyone using the tool needs to have:

- ✓ Name, exactly as it appears on Social Security card
- ✓ A work-eligible Social Security number
- ✓ An email address to help create your account on the Non-Filers tool
- ✓ A mailing address where you can receive the payment and confirmation letter, which the IRS will mail within 15 days after your payment is issued

If you want your payment via direct deposit, you'll need banking information – the routing and account number.

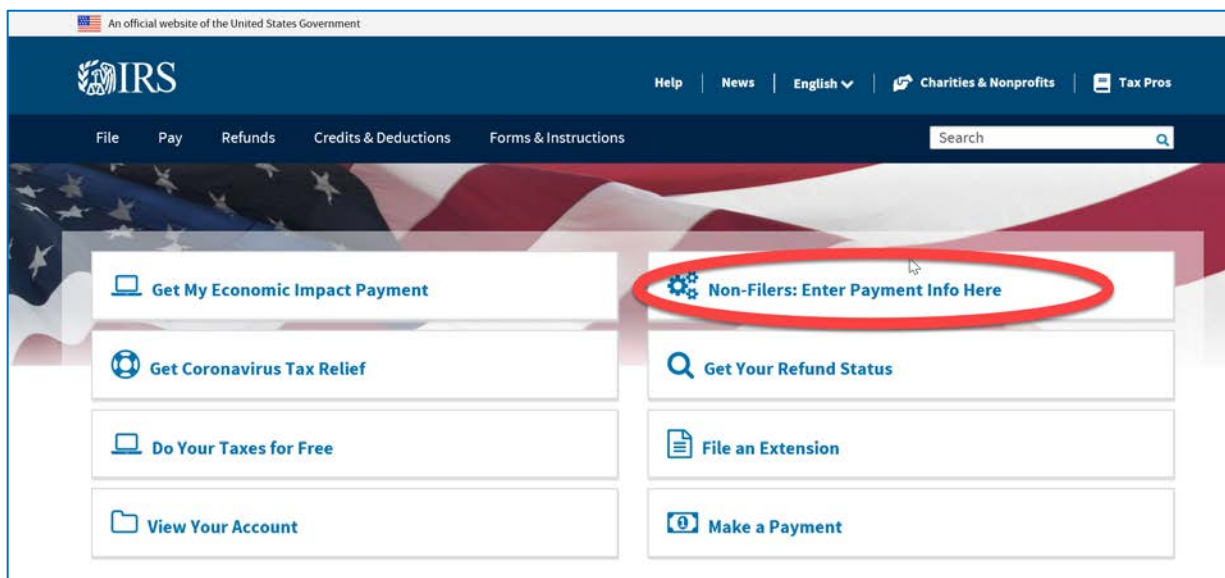

- If you want to receive your payment in a U.S. affiliated bank account but don't have one, visit the FDIC website. FDIC has information on how to choose the right account and where to find a bank that can open an account online, if needed.
- You may be able to have your payment sent to your reloadable prepaid debit card. Many reloadable prepaid cards have account and routing numbers that you could provide to the IRS through the Non-Filers: Enter Payment Info Here tool. You would need to check with the financial institution to ensure your card can be re-used and to obtain the routing number and account number, which may be different from the card number. When providing this information in the Non-Filers tool, you should indicate that the account and routing number provided are for a checking account unless your financial institution indicates otherwise.

If the IRS sent you an Identity Protection Personal Identification Number (IP PIN) in the past, you'll need it to use this tool. If you lost your IP PIN, use the Get an IP PIN tool to retrieve your number.

NOTE: The Non-Filers tool includes a space for your license or state ID number, if you have one, to digitally sign your document in the Non-Filers tool. There are other ways to do this, so a license or state ID is optional in the tool. However, it may be requested by an organization that is helping you use the Non-Filers tool.

Let's begin!

Start at IRS.gov. From the IRS.gov homepage, select Non-Filers: Enter Payment Info Here.

Confirm you can use the Non-Filers tool. Carefully review the information on the screen to make sure you can use the tool. Click on “Get Started” after you confirm this is the correct tool to use. Also, please review the system requirements under the FAQs link to the left to confirm your computer will work with this tool.

On the bottom two sections of this page:

- ✓ Complete your bank information if you want your payment as direct deposit (otherwise the IRS will mail your payment as a check or a debit card).
- ✓ Double check your routing and account numbers for accuracy.
- ✓ Enter an Identity Protection Personal Identification Number (IP PIN) for you or your spouse, if applicable.

Then select “Continue to Step 2” to advance to the next screen.

A screenshot of a web form titled "Banking Information" and "Identity Protection PIN (if Applicable)". The "Banking Information" section includes a routing number field with "000000000" entered, an account number field, and radio buttons for "Checking" and "Savings". Below this is a blue informational box stating: "Providing the IRS with direct deposit information can expedite your economic impact payment. If you don't have a bank account, the IRS will issue a check." The "Identity Protection PIN (if Applicable)" section has two fields: "Taxpayer Identity Protection PIN" and "Spouse Identity Protection PIN (if filing jointly)", both with "000000" entered. A blue informational box below states: "If you or your spouse have experienced identity theft and the IRS sent you Identity Protection PINs, enter those PINs here to successfully file this return." At the bottom right, there is a blue button labeled "Continue to Step 2". A large red arrow points from the top right towards the "Continue to Step 2" button.

STEP 2 page: Verifications and signatures: Simply follow the instructions on the page. You'll need your driver's license (or state-issued ID) information. If you don't have one, leave it blank.

The form asks for last year's Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) from your tax return, or your five-digit self-selected signature PIN. If you didn't file a tax return last year, enter "0" for the AGI and continue to the next section, where you'll digitally sign.

For the last step on this page, you'll need to verify your email address. In your email account, look for a verification email from customer_service@freefilefillableforms.com. In that verification email, select "Update Your Account." This will verify your email address. Then you can return to the Non-Filers tool to complete filing.
